

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mr. Jas. T. Eptins enters for office of county treasurer.

Mr. M. H. Boozer is announced as a candidate for county supervisor.

Mr. S. A. Pressly of Due West, was in the city during the week.

Mrs. Virgil Kohn and Miss Dorris Kohn of Prosperity, were shopping in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Parr have gone to Florida for a week or ten days on a pleasure trip.

Chief Justice Eugene B. Gary of Abbeville, spent Tuesday in the city with his cousins, John M. Kinard and J. Y. McFall.

Those who enjoy the Hazzards of Helen may see them in the afternoon of Friday as the opera house will be used at night by the young men of the college for the March debate.

Misses Lottie Lee, Eunice Halfacre, Pernellia McIlwain, Maggie Lee Swindler and Ida Mae Stetler are attending State teachers' meeting in Columbia.

On Friday, March 24, beginning at 8 o'clock, p. m., there will be given at Hunter-DeWalt school house, a box auction and other entertainment for the benefit of the school. Don't forget the date.

Mr. John W. Reeder was called to Greenwood this week on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. Mary F. Reeder, who is sick with pneumonia. Mrs. Reeder is now 84 years old. At last account she was improved.

Mrs. Carry Banks, wife of Mr. Henry J. Banks, died at her home in the city Monday. Mrs. Banks was about 30 years of age and leaves a husband and three children. Interment was in West End cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

May Robson in a Night Out at the opera house tonight (Thursday) is a "cracker-jack" comedy, so says Wells and he knows what he is talking about. The fact is if you want to see some real fine comedy in movies go to the opera house tonight. (Thursday).

FARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Laney-Odum. And he paid 'em.

The town meeting house—Leslie's Arcade.

Have your friends urged you yet? Have a heart.

Magistrate Player and deputy Sheriff William Dorroh took a crazy negro man to the asylum Wednesday.

The proper pronunciation of Villa is Ve-Ya, but the popular denunciation is villian.

If this is not a forced March it certainly is a forceful one from a windy point of view.

Mr. Geo. T. Mabill is announced in this issue for the office of solicitor from this circuit.

Just think of it—the presence of the fire insurance companies made it possible for our old State to live, and we didn't know it.

A drunken sot,
Is Billie Horn,
He drinks per month
Two quarts of corn.

Arthur Nance, who knows something of the high cost of city life was fined $5 in the recorder's court for stealing water from the town.

The Young People's Missionary society will meet in the parlor of Central church Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

Hazel Dawn, will make her first Paramount appearance in Newberry in "My Lady Inco," an unusual detective drama. Leslie's Arcade today (Friday).

After the fire insurance companies are gone there will be nothing left in South Carolina to make it a fit place to live in, so let us all move out and leave the old wrecked ship of state.

Tuesday afternoon, according to Weather G. Peterson, the thermometer stood at 79 degrees. Thursday morning it registered 23 degrees, a drop of 56 degrees in less than 40 hours.

In the recorder's court Truin Satterwhite was charged with swinging a train. He didn't appear and the court swings on to the dollar that Truin put up.

The Arcade has arranged an extra fine program for Saturday. Fatty Arbuckle in "Fatty's Plucky Pup," a Keystone comedy in two reels and "Inbad, the Sailor," a Paramount-Bray cartoon, are the chief attractions.

The young people of Smyrna have quite a novel scheme for raising money to help furnish the new church. Each worker is soliciting a foot of pennies. They hope to raise an eighth of a mile or 10,560 pennies.

There are ten prisoners in jail awaiting trial at the term of court to convene in Newberry next Monday. There are only seven cases continued from the last term and about seven appeal cases from magistrate's courts.

Have you ever noticed that the Confederate monument stands in the middle of a back lot? It is a beautiful monument and deserves a more conspicuous location. It ought to stand on the public square in front of the old court house.

Lud Parker, Frank Downing and Fred Smith engaged in a three handed game of fist and skull and in the recorder's court, they contributed in the hat as it was passed around as follows: Lud, $3; Frank, $2, and Fred, $1.

In the recorder's court there was a picture in three reels, that is the parties were reeling and rocking to such an extent that they were invited to attend the recorder's matinee. Messrs. Griffin, Evans and Pruitt were the stars and each left with the recorder a five spot as a souvenir.

Three negro children were burned to death in a house in Mr. J. H. Johnson's place in No. 7 township last Thursday night. The parents of the children left five of them in the house and locked it and went off. About 10 o'clock the house caught on fire and two of the children broke out the window and got out. The children burned were from two to six years old. The two older children took the baby out with them but the three that were burned could not get out. A dog that was tied to the corner of the house as a protection to the children was also burned to death.

Wells of the opera house will during the month of April donate all the proceeds of every Wednesday afternoon performance to the various orphanages of the State. There will be no ticket taker at the door but a contribution box will be there where all contributions may be placed as you enter and the key to the box will be turned over to some one who may be designated by the representatives of the orphanages and the total amount received will be divided equally among the various orphanages of the State. This is a very generous deed on the part of the manager and those who like to see the movies may contribute to the orphans and at the same time enjoy the play.

Efforts are being made to organize a military company for Newberry. Petitions are in circulation and already more than forty names have been signed. Most of those who are joining are from West End. The petitions are in the hands of Mr. R. H. Schaffer, John Henry Baxter and Virgil M. Keiser. Newberry has had some of the best militia organizations in the State. During the time Col. O. L. Schumpert was captain of the company and later under Captains S. J. McCaughrin and W. S. Langford Newberry had some fine companies. The Herald and News hopes that the present efforts will be successful. We would be pleased to see a fine company here and there is no doubt that we have the material for the making of a good company.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER
(Rev. Edward Fulewider, pastor).
Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

10:15 A. M.—The Sunday school meets. Be present and make your class a banner class. If nothing prevents a free "Easter egg hunt" will be given to all the members of the school on Easter Monday.

11:15 A. M.—The hour of worship. The pastor will preach a sermon on the subject, "The New Way to the Great City." Text: Luke 10:20. "But rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven." Heb. 10:20. "Be a new and loving way, which He hath consecrated for us." Some things will be presented in the sermon that every one who reads this notice should hear. Not only are our names written in the Great City, but all of us have some representatives there. On what road are you?

7:30 P. M.—Special service in charge of Foreign Missionary society. This service will close the week of prayer and self-denial and all the members are requested to be present and to bring their thank offering envelopes. The members have been fortunate in securing Dr. A. J. Bowns to make the address at this service. There will be special music at both services.

The public is cordially invited to all the services.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE CIVIC ASSOCIATION

The regular monthly meeting of the civic association will be held at the residence of Mrs. R. H. Wright on Monday afternoon, March 20th, at 4 o'clock.

The Civic association is an important organization, and has accomplished much good and every one should be interested in this work whose sole object is for public good, and whose end is public health and happiness. The association needs the membership and cooperation of every woman in town, and there could be great work done, and Newberry would show just what a community spirit could do for a town.

Every woman in town is invited and urged to become a member of the Civic association, and it is hoped that many new members will be enrolled.

Mrs. R. H. Wright, president.
(Mrs. J. Y. McFall, secretary,
Civic Association.

SOCIETY.

Mrs. Duncan Johnson, Jr., was the hostess this week for the Winthrop Daughters. A most interesting and attractive program was carried out.

Miss Katherine Wright read a short sketch of the life of George Eliot, Miss Gertrude Reeder, Mrs. Browning's life and a selection from Mrs. Browning.

Miss Eliza Mabry, "The Life and Works of Louise M. Alcott."

The club has decided to make a study of great women and a committee has been appointed to arrange a program for each meeting.

Their annual banquet will be given in May and a special invitation will be given President Johnson of Winthrop college.

A most delightful salad course followed by hot chocolate was served by the hostess.

Besides the club members the only guests were Mrs. Clarence Renneker of Orangeburg and Miss Marceline Brady.

Mrs. T. C. Pool assembled a number of her friends Monday for a morning of pleasant chat. The guests brought their sewing and fancy work, and a couple of hours were most delightfully spent after which an elaborate course luncheon was served. Mrs. Pool's guests included Mesdames O. McC. Holmes, Mrs. H. Carville, Mrs. J. T. Mayes, Mrs. J. W. M. Simmons, Mrs. J. N. Martin, Mrs. L. W. Jones, Mrs. Wm Seabrooke, Mrs. James McIntosh, Mrs. L. H. Broadus and Mrs. W. H. Hunt.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. R. H. Wright charmingly entertained the Auction Bridge club. The beautiful rooms were made still more attractive with bright hued flowers and dark green ferns. Quite a number of games were played and delightful refreshments served the members of the club and a number of friends.

Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Spearman entertained the Evening Bridge club. Two of the members being absent their places were filled by Miss Lucile Wallace and Mr. Jackson Bowers. After a number of interesting games a salad course was served.

Mrs. Ed. H. Jahuz, of Charleston, who was Miss Mabel Williamson, is being most cordially welcomed by hosts of Newberry friends.

In her honor Mrs. P. E. Way, charmingly entertained Tuesday afternoon. Her guests included Mrs. Edw. Jahuz, Mrs. Charles Watkins, Mrs. Everett Evans, Miss Catherine Wright, Miss Ruby Goggans, Miss Rosalyn Hipp, and Miss Gladys Chappell.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a St. Patrick's tea Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. W. M. Simmons. Each member invited a guest and about seventy-five ladies enjoyed the afternoon.
